A Series of Twelve Energy Transmissions

Message One

Welcoming THE "BENEVOLENT ONES"

Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa
Delivered at TOSA Ranch October 29, 2005

(This message begins with the presence of Archangel Zadkiel)

Yes! Hello! It is indeed a lovely time to be here with you today. It is good to see so many. It is good to be here with you today. Know that we come to you today with many blessings of love, joy, upliftment, and deep connection.

*It is a vital time to open up pathways of peace!
Pathways of peace within your own angelic soul and pathways of further understanding of your harmonic connection within.*

Alignment of the Body with Harmonic Balance

As we open up your peace pathways within, and as you come into your own pathway of peace, you will find yourself becoming deeply aligned with harmonic balance... Much harmonic balance!

And what is the opposite of balance? You know this. Imbalance yes! It is easy to understand that you are at the time of harmonic balance. You are at the time of the recognition that all of the portals of energies that needed to be aligned in the core of your planet are now open. These portals are aligned, vibrating, and nourishing the planet at many levels. Because of this alignment, there is an escalation and much shaking up, oh yes, on many levels, on many, many levels. This shaking is not just the levels of this planet, dear ones, there is much shaking up within right now.

You must understand that you are indeed physically shifting more now than you have ever been.

This is not news! You say, "Zadkiel you have said this to us much before". We say, "We know, just making sure you got it!"

It is important to recognize that your body is coming forward to you now. Because the physical body has been deeply entrenched in the shift for so many months now, it is the emotional body that will be rearing very powerfully at this time. When the emotional body rears powerfully, there are many aspects to the emotional body, are there not? More aspects than we could give you today. You can all sit here and name an aspect and we would still have aspects to name, would we not? For each has a nuance of what each understands to be within this understanding of emotional presences, many faces about you. Oh yes, what was that word they said, Sybil, many personalities? (laughter) Yes! It will be very Sybil like around here. Yes! So it is good to enjoy that, it is good to understand that. For if you know this ahead of time, you do not need to go into deep panic. If you add deep panic to this "Sybil like" environment, oh my goodness! That would be one party we would avoid.

Yes! It is good to know that as you are moving forward on the galactic stairwell, as you are opening up all of the portals, as you are in the energy of that which has come forward now, now more than ever you must allow yourself to go deeper into the love of the truth of your being. This is an important reminder. How can you move forward if you do not first have the anchor in the truth that you know to be now?

Anchoring the Truth of Your Body as Energy

You must be anchored, you must be present, and you must be proficient in the understanding of what energy truly is. Take a moment and recognize that your body is not solid matter. You must truly recognize this, not just say the words, truly recognize that your body is not solid matter! You know this in your head, you bring it into your heart, and then you allow the disintegration to be effortless, joyous, abundant, and fulfilling.

It is when you cling tight to matter that you cling to the energies of the Sybil like emotional density, and when you are clinging to the density, you are unable to allow the de-materialization of the body to be.

Dearest children, your body is already shifting. It is already expanding into Oneness and as it expands evermore, and as you disintegrate beyond this time and space, you will recognize that you can not hold on. It is time to claim the permanence of impermanence! Do you understand this? We say it again, "It is time to claim the permanence of impermanence."

The Ascended Chakra System and Limitlessness

Recognize the limitlessness that you are! Recognize that this world, planet, earth, form, density, whatever cute little adjective you want to give to it, is nothing more than a wondrous visit. It is a great place, an adventure filled playground. Have you been playing? Or have you been working? Is your work play and is your play work? You must ask yourself these questions. You are unable to move yourself into limitless expansion until you integrate the full understanding of your heart centers.

Now let us talk more about this. As the heart center has become the root of the ascended state, it is part of the twelve point ascended chakra system.<sup>1</sup> Yes, you all know this? OK. So as you know that you have the twelve point ascended chakra system and that the Divine Galactic Blueprint is fully spinning, fully spinning with all of the portals that are open now, are you spinning with it? Or are you trying to stand firm into density wondering what all the chaos is about?

If you stand in the middle of the ocean like a brick, the ocean will hurt. Think about it! Is it not easier to become the ocean? Is it not easier to float? Yes! So when you feel the brick upon you, you are then able to let it go through the recognition that it is blocking you. You must recognize this. The energy of resistance adds mortar to a brick. It is important as you feel resistance to recognize the gift that it is.

Releasing Illusionary Doctrine

Dearest children you are at a great time. Our great brethren are ready to talk to you soon. They say that we talk too much, can you believe this? (laughter) Yes! Yet we come because we enjoy the communication. Indeed remember why you are here to begin with. You love this body! You jump in joy in the body expression. You get to smile, you get to grow hair, you get to lose hair, you get to grow teeth, you get to lose teeth, you get to grow nails, you get to chop nails, look at all this fun! Yes, and you get to touch. You get to touch each other; you get to touch yourself, huh, very funny! (much laughter) It is important to remember that as you have these bodies that you have yearned for, this is the full expression of density. You have many, many, many bodies do you not? We are talking now of the physical body. We have talked about the emotional body, and there is the spiritual body, and there is the galactic body that you have yet to touch!

The truth of your being-ness is well beyond what you have considered it to be based upon the illusionary doctrine of spending many eons here.

Dearest children let go of illusionary doctrine and prepare to open yourself wide to the great connection of all that is. The stream of Divine Love is wider than you could possibly imagine; so don't imagine just let it be. Even your imagination can be limited if you apply density principles to it. Do you understand this?

*When you apply to imagination a concept of what something must look like,
of what something should be, in that creation right there and right then,
you are limiting the truth.*

You must, dearest children, bring forth color. Just bring forth a color. Even that one color can be a concept, can it not? But begin with color, formless color. Open up to the tone of that color. Go into the truth of your being, be present, start there, and then let it create for you. You do not need to control the creation.

Understanding your Creator Being-ness

You are a magnificent creator and in joining with density, look how magnificently you have created. Forms, space, even time, my goodness what a creation. You have created so much. It is time now for you to let the creation come back to you. You do not need to be the creator. It is time that you are free. You are free, understand this! Not in the realm of being free in the fact that some government tells you, you are free.

*Freedom as defined as the placed where you are limitless form, where you are able to call in the truth of creation because you are open to limitless expansion, and because you are able to recognize deeply the truth of your being.
It is in this place that ONLY PURE JOY can exist!*

Not the joy of the emotional body for indeed, that too is transient! It is the deep joy of recognition, the deep joy where there can be no fear because you are in the truth of your being-ness. It is this time for you, and all those that are and all those that are still waiting to be, remember this!

And so dearest children we you again, as we offered to you several months ago, if you knew, if you absolutely knew, that this moment, this instant, was the last instant you would be in this form, this way, what would you do? How would you do it? What would you feel? How would you express it?

And then ask yourself, are you expressing that level of deep love? Are you expressing that level of joy? Do you meet each other soul to soul, or are you still meeting face to face, body to body?

Living in the energy of Star Consciousness

You all have the gift; your star consciousness<sup>2</sup> is wide open. Star consciousness, dearest children, resides well above what you call the third eye. The third eye still has a density control mechanism at place. It still filters through a belief system. You must lift up into your star consciousness which is located well above the third eye. It is in the space of the star consciousness, that is where you meet each other. You know how to do this. Gaze into the star consciousness of another<sup>3</sup>, meet them there. If you are in conflict, go to your star consciousness. You wish to resolve a conflict, gaze upon the other in their star consciousness, call it forward, be present. This is a great gift that you can use now!

You wish to connect deeply with the Divine? Go into your own mirror of your own soul. Go deeply into your soul consciousness and release all belief systems that claim you are anything other than Divine energy. Know that you are one that has come so far, one that has risen so far. Why are you clinging to any form of illusion? We will tell you why, because it's fun! It's a habit! You like it!

It is important to remember that everyone, every being, while still carrying a body, while still having flesh, bone, blood, tissue, hair, nails, teeth; will always have the connection to illusions, so enjoy the connection.

You came for this moment! Hug a lot...Hug a lot. It is important. If there is no one you wish to hug, we hope you are hugging yourself. We are serious. Hug a lot. It is important.

Say thank you. This body has loved you, cherished you, nourished you, taken care of you, provided you an opportunity to be. Even when you feel you are fighting with it, love it more, love it more. Pay attention, times are changing. Oh yes they are. Remember dearest children it is time to claim the permanence of impermanence because all is impermanent now. All has been opened and all has been connected.

Introducing The Benevolent Ones

We wish to talk now about the Dear Ones. For us they are very dear. Since we have first begun to speak, we have been and continue to be, a great filter. It is all we are, a filter. When we first came to speak with the Sri Ram Kaa and the Kira Raa, we made it very clear that we offered you the names of our energies because it offers your mind the opportunity to relax and receive. It is important for your mind to relax and it is also important to remember that the Archangelic realm is just the filter. We are the ones that simply have helped bring messages forward for you and we are grateful. We have good time, no? And we plan on continuing to have a good time. Next time you are drinking your fermented grape and dancing, look over your shoulder, we are with you. Oh yes! (much laughter)

We wish for you to know that it is a great time; many years of preparation for this time on your planet. What a joyous celebration! You made it, you are here! Yeah! We jump up and down now OK? We are jumping up and down, yes! Confetti all over you! And so when you are at it, when you have made it, when you are at the culmination, it is because dearest children you are ready. You have expanded your minds. You have opened your energy fields. You have brought forth the truth of your being. You have said, "OK, I have made a decision. I will stay. I am a part of this and I understand this is a big joyous party to be in!"

You must also know that the Benevolent Ones have spent many, many, many, many, how many? Many, many, many, many, many years preparing for this time. For you see, dearest children, their energies have been unable to come forward on this planet until the Ascension portals were opened and anchored in the core of your earth. From the core of your earth, there now emits a vibration that is sent out from the core and vibrates right through the planet and comes straight out. You all feel it, you all know it, even your scientists can document it. This planetary vibration had to be available for the energy of greater connection to come forward at this time. Know that we are most delighted to share, and when we say we are sharing, we must also share this body, this Kira body.

It is our delight to offer you even more information through this anchored connection, than our filter lets us bring through. The information that they, (The Benevolent Ones), bring through is of another vibrational realm, that yes dearest ones, is well beyond ours. We are honored to be a vibrational filter. We are honored to be here with you. It is our gift to always be here with you. They can not stop us! No they can not! (laughter) However, we too have much to offer and often times will be asked to share. You may at first, find yourself only feeling the energy of these Beings. And so we offer you this gift.

Know the limitless of who you are. Release the concept of I; embrace the understanding of Being.

Dearest children, you must know this at this time, we have not yet mastered coming back in, to speak, after them. So we get to say all of our farewells before they show up. Which is kind of fun! You must understand that as we do this, you are each being showered with a color.

Take a moment, close your eyes. See the color before you, just the color, no form, just the color. Let it come in. Let it be. No form, just color. Here is where you begin and from here the infinity reveals itself. Many blessings dear ones.

THE BENEVOLENT ONES Speak

Hello. It is with great wondrous love that we come to say that we have waited many eons of time to come back here to visit with you, our dearest brethren. We see in you the gift of the DNA of crystal strands waiting to be ignited. Oh yes they are alive, they are well, and they are lifting dearly. As these crystal strands are coming forward in you now, they must ignite with the flame well beyond what you call chakras.

We offer you deep hellos and welcomes. We come from many realms beyond what we could explain in this moment. Yet we have begun bringing forth the galactic, what you would call encyclopedia, so that you can come forward again and see the truth of your being with great loving remembrance.

Your DNA has been resonating now for many eons, preparing, opening, coming forth to come home.

We have stood silently unable to interfere, for the gift of non interference is the greatest gift we can offer you. You have asked for this gift and we have been reverently holding it. We are not here now to interfere. We are here to joyously reunite. Yes we feel you all, as you are feeling us.

To touch the soul of the truth of your being is the greatest gift you can give us to give you.
We can not offer you anything you have not brought forward in yourself.
It is a most pungent memory. It is rarified in streams of consciousness that have been sub atomically suppressed for eons.

There have been many releases of energy on your planet that were necessary to open up these streams of great energy. These streams will continue to open and there will be more energetic releases on your planet. Do not be afraid. You are impenetrable. You can not ever perish. You know this already. Your bodies simply want you to believe different. You are a magnificent being of wondrous limitless light. You can not put any form on this and the sub atomic energies and the strata's of your earth are reforming now.

There are many energies that are meeting with the vibrational energies being emanated from your planet, just outside what you would call your atmosphere. These energies are now reuniting and sending back to you many messages. There are many of you who can connect with this energy and there are many who can not and will not feel it at all. You must not interfere. You can only become what you are. How you become this is up to you; it is still your choice. Nothing is set in stone, yes this is your expression, and so you are able to move forward.

Children we delight in saying hello to you. You bring us great joy for you have come to the time of your choice. You have come to the time of the shift of the formless becoming evermore expanded and in this time there is much to understand. Your brains are going to hurt, oh yes, because they will be asked to expand well beyond the skull. For many of you, your skulls will physically be shifting. You may find that you will need surgeries to shift your skull, suddenly there may be something going on in the head, you may find yourself expanding without this, you may find head pressure, you may suddenly say, "Why is my hat too tight?" You must understand that not all will experience this way, yet many of you will. Many of you will experience body shifts in rapid periods of time that will defy what you call science. Science, dearest children, as you understand it, is birthed of this planet. Go beyond it! Use it for what it can offer you and then let yourself go beyond.

We come today simply say hello, to reconnect.

You are at the birth of a great shift. The cosmic calendar has no beginning and no end, only in your linear thinking is there a beginning and end. In the cosmic time line, there is only infinite expansion. Only you Are... Now.

Think of a beautiful stream of pure Light. See it, and bring it to your consciousness. You do not need to look at it anymore. It is time for you to reunite with it. It is time for you to joyously say, "I do remember. I do remember and I am not afraid."

There are many here for you and we are here for you. Over this next, what you call period of months, we will teach you many things that you can already do. We will show you how to heal each other on a greater level than you do now. We will show you how to bring yourself into your greatest Oneness so that by the end of that time, the self becomes a word you laugh at. Understanding that it was a great gift and it is a great propellant, for it offers you as if it is a great propeller the opportunity to expand.

Please know you will make great connection, not only with us, with many others that are coming forward very shortly. This year will offer you the greatest momentum, change, shift, and understanding than you have ever experienced ever. Take all of your history and it will equal this one year. Breathe into that and your breath is your freedom.

In the understanding of all the ascension portals that are now open on this planet, you must understand there are many corresponding portals that are open in many other worlds. Your time of true communion without any filter is here. Your time of pure recognition, the essence of the gift of love that you are, is right now. It is not a coming attraction, it is here.

You must also recognize that in that here-ness, your Ascended chakra system, the twelve points of the Divine Galactic Blueprint, have with each of them twelve more points. There are a hundred and forty four energy centers that are all opening for you now. We will help you lift all of them into the opening. You will feel beyond that.

We simply ask one thing; be pure in your heart of your intent.
Why do you seek reunification?

Why do you seek to be?

This is all we will see. We will not hear your words. We only use words so many can hear us now and yet we could sit here and simply look at you and you would still understand.

Dearest children, you are at this time, you are ready. Our messages come through to you on many, many levels. Many of you will start experiencing profound dreams and expansions. Many of you will begin powerful writing. Many of you will feel more, know more. Trust your intuition; come forward with your truth. We can not leave you, for you are us, we are you, we are One. Our DNA is your DNA. Dearest ones, it is just your time to fully remember.

We use the emotions of this body, (Kira Raa), to express our love to you. There are many tears of gratitude here. We can not even put words on the love we hold for you.

We ask you to know, that you will know the love we are as you love yourself.

We are so happy to reunite. We have given you much profound energy. Your questions would only serve today to bring the mind back in and so we wish to give you the gift of not asking them, and you need to sit with that and understand the perfection of that. We love you dearly. Your questions are answered.

All is well. Know this. Thank you for the gift. We can not come without you. We shall talk to you often. We offer you great love, abundant joy, and our humble thank you. It has been a long time and it has been no time. Much love
